Hearing Date: July 9, 2024
Hearing Time: 8:30AM
Dept: 99

Petitioner, Mark Warren Peary, hereby submits the following Supplement to the Status Report of Administration, which was previously filed on December 18, 2023, and is scheduled for hearing on July 9, 2024 at 8:30AM:

Note A: No PROPER ntc/copy to affected parties [1] w/right to acct legend [PC 12201(b)]. Ntc filed 12/18/23 is INSUFFICIENT -Para 2 reflects hrng date as 1/9/24.

Supplement to Note A: Notice of Hearing for the July 9, 2024 hearing and a copy of the Status of Report of Administration filed December 18, 2023 were served upon all affected parties via First Class Mail on June 25, 2024, which Notice of Hearing with Proof of Service was filed with the Court on June 25, 2024.

Note B: No PROPER spec ntc/copy [4] - Amy Jenkins, Wayne Smith, & Daniel M. Petrocelli, & Patrick T. Perkins (request filed 02/09/11). Ntc filed 12/18/23 is INSUFFICIENT - Para 2 reflects hrng date as 1/9/24.

Supplement to Note B: Amy Jenkins, Wayne Smith, Daniel M. Petrocelli and Patrick T. Perkins were served by Petitioner with a Notice of Hearing for the July 9, 2024 hearing and a copy of the December 18, 2023 Status Report of Administration, via First Class Mail on June 25, 2024, which Notice of Hearing with Proof of Service was filed with the Court on June 25, 2024.

Note C: No I&A filed.

Supplement to Note C: When Joseph Shuster died, on July 30, 1992, the value of his Estate was below the threshold required for the Estate to be probated pursuant to CA Prob Code §13100. The economic state of the Estate was such that its assets could not even cover Shuster's funeral costs. As such, no Inventory and Appraisal was performed at that time.

The Estate was later probated in 2003, because Petitioner sought to enforce Shuster's copyright termination rights under 17 U.S.C. §304(c), with

1 respect to Shuster's literary creations. The Estate needed to be probated because 2 when a deceased author has no living widow or widower, children, or
3 grandchildren (as was the case of Shuster), the termination right, pursuant to 17
4 U.S.C. §304(c)(2)(D), is held only by the author's executor, administrator,
5 personal representative, or trustee.

6 Subsequently, the Estate has been engaged in the process of identifying
7 Shuster's intellectual property. This has been a long and complicated process,
8 due to a number of factors: first, most of Shuster's work was created decades
9 ago, from the 1930s to the 1970s; second, many of Shuster's works were 10 unpublished, and therefore physical copies of the originals need to be located in 11 order to be properly identified and exploited; and third, in 2018, a large number
12 of lesser-known works by Shuster were unearthed, requiring an involved chain-
13 of-title analysis. All these factors have been time-consuming and labor-intensive 14 for the Estate to address, and the difficulty of placing a value on such 15 unexploited intellectual property has contributed to the difficulty in performing 16 an Inventory and Appraisal to this date.

17 Note D: Petnr alleges more time is needed to make money for the Estate
18 & the Estate has been open for 20+ years – administration needs to close. Final 19 petn to be filed w/i 90 days.

20 Supplement to Note D: Petitioner alleges that the Estate should remain
21 open, as certain rights with respect to Shuster's copyright interests can only be 22 exercised by the executor or administrator of his Estate (e.g., termination rights
23 under the Copyright Act, as Shuster has no surviving widow, children or 24 grandchildren), not simply to "make money." Pursuant to the April 14, 2024
25 Minute Order issued by this Court, Petitioner submitted a Statement to the Court
26 on June 27, 2024, which Statement outlined the reasons that the Estate should 27 remain open. Petitioner respectfully refers the Court to the June 27, 2024
28

1 Statement in response to Note D and asks that the Estate remain open until
2 December 31, 2024.
